THROWBACK THURSDAY

Marquette Shopping Center

The Marquette Shopping Center, in the 1100 block of West Mason Street was built in the mid-1950s. At the time, tenants included the Sure Way grocery store, Krider's Pharmacy, Marquette Bakery, Pappy's Liquor, and the Marquette Five and Dime. Today, Krider's is at the same location, while the Salvation Army utilizes a major portion of the shopping center and the former bakery is available for lease.
